

This is propostrous, a ploy of the left to make America communist. The millions of people who rely on traffic and weather reports want to get those reports right than and there. They dont want to wait around on some second rate FM channel listening to radio "dj's" who cannot get a real job spout out advertisements that they could care less about.
Keep the Instant traffic on weather reports alive!